THE KRYON TEACHINGS

Channeled by Mario Liani

The Kryon Group is the name that Mario Liani uses to describe the loving energy of Kryon.

This energy is not a single entity, but a higher consciousness group of angelic realms that operates without individuality and with absolute synchronicity.

Kryon is channeled in several languages by different spokespersons around the world.

Mario Liani is a channel for Kryon in the Spanish language.

HUMANS: YOU ARE THE MAGNETIC SERVICE!

Channeled live on April 12, 2007

(Buenos Aires, Argentina)

It is appropriate to mention that the following text is not an exact and literal transcription of the live channeling; the spoken word possesses an energetic quality that cannot be captured with the written Word. In virtue of this, Mario Liani has channeled Kryon once more in order to make the necessary adjustments so that the text is coherent and the message can be processed by the reader who was not present at the live event.

KRYONS VOICE...

Oh, How delightful! How much gratitude, how much love there is around all of you here and Now.

You cannot imagine how much love we needed in order to be here now... It's not like we needed to open a window, for the window is always open. How wonderful it is to pull the veil aside... to see us "descend" and place ourselves among you, Now.

Oh! How much joy there is here and there! But, what exactly is here and there? Here and There are the same: this side of the Veil or the other side of the Veil... What is a veil? A veil is transparent. The veil is but a metaphor. This is a veil that has been named only as a metaphoric reference. Let's use it as a metaphor and understand that the family doesn't need to be apart. You and we are One and you know it. There is no further need to repeat it, right?

We are Kryon and we have come to serve humanity

For those who still don't know, we tell them that we are a Group, but we are also Essence... Therefore, we are going to make ourselves comfortable and use the term "I am." That's why we tell you:

"I am Kryon and I am in service to humanity"

You have no idea how much joy there is at this present moment here, amid all of you, because all those entities that have strategically placed themselves around you are your Family. Some are your ancestors and others –incredible as it may seem – are your descendants. All are here now, because now is Now. There is no past, no present and no future. For us, the concept of time is nonexistent. My dear ones, you still cannot fully comprehend this concept now, but you will certainly understand it later.

Allow yourselves to understand that your “before” essences and your “after” essences coexist Here and Now. We find ourselves together now in this Family reunion that has taken place because you requested it, you co-created it.

ANGELS: YOU ARE THE MAGNETIC SERVICE

As our spokesman previously told you, “you are Kryon.” Kryon is not an entity; Kryon is the energy of the Family, your Spiritual Family.

Angels! You and we are all Angels. What a beautiful word! Maybe we don’t know how to define it, but for you and us, Angel is synonymous with purity, spirituality, and love... And that’s what is all about, dears: this is a gathering of Love.

You are here because you heard the call: the call of the heart. You have come here ready to open up your hearts. Therefore, you have done part of the job and have opened your hearts; that opening has allowed all of us to be Here and Now in total and complete harmony.

There is no difference between you and us. We simply coexist with you in essence. When it’s time to say goodbye, it will be a metaphorical farewell for, in actuality, we would have never left... Between us, farewells will always be symbolic... for there is no such thing as a farewell... you are never alone for we are always with you.

My dear ones, do you know why we didn’t say that we are from the Magnetic Service? (Kryon smiles) – This is not to contradict our spokesman since he is of the idea that the slogan “Magnetic Service” represents the energetic brand of our spokesman residing in the big country on the north. Beyond this, what we want to communicate now is that you are the Magnetic Service! We only help with the adjustments.

My dear ones, it is through your magnetism that the Earth breathes, that the Earth lives... You are the magnetic cells of this Planet, of this Body that breathes. You are the ones who actually perform a Magnetic Service. We are simply the “technicians” who help to make adjustment to this service. At the same time, you are the creators of the Grid, because you created the Grid with your magnetism, which is alive, because you are magnetic. Where does your magnetism dwell? It is in your DNA, in your cells. Where does it come from? This magnetism is immortal. It’s a genetic vibration, is a code that travels with you from expression to expression and it is here now with you because “it is” your magnetic resonance and it’s set in your pattern and personal imprint.

What if we tell you that the same magnetic resonance, that same imprint is simultaneously found elsewhere, in other dimensions, in other spheres? No matter where, the key is: “simultaneously.”

THE SIMULTANEOUSNESS OF BEING

You – here and now- are a part of that which represents you. There are many “I’s” who belong to you in simultaneous spaces, living different experiences. You are but part of “one” of those experiences. And when you have transcended this experience, you will be able to reunify part of your magnetism, part of your current experiences with those simultaneous experiences and you will be thus helping that big body you call God to breathe and to continue to live through the experiences imprinted in your cells and your DNA.

All that travels with you, all that “is” you. That is why you can sense aspects of yourselves that are not necessarily present in your now, for, in fact, they reside in another reality. What you feel or perceive are the shadows, the reflection of those other “I’s.”

Could you integrate those memories or experiences while you are here? In some cases yes, but not completely. It would not be altogether good for you to be able to access those other “I’s.” However, if some of you could actually perceive the reflection of other “I’s,” we would strongly recommend that you use the experience, that you exploit it – so to speak – for your own evolutionary spiritual growth, because that which you are here and now, is also what you “are” in other simultaneous spaces and what you “will be” tomorrow.

When you understand that the reality you are creating here contributes to create realities in other spaces, you will be gaining access to those other entities, to those other parts of yourselves, and will be helping to integrate the experience as a whole. When you become conscious that whatever you do today is the seed of today and of tomorrow... but also of the past of those other entities, you will have come to understand that: time does not exist and that everything is taking place simultaneously.

We are here together now because “all” of your fragments decided to unify this experience. At this moment, those fragments are moving forward with gigantic steps to the next evolutionary level. At this moment, the healing that takes place here is also taking place in other levels. Healing takes place in your physical body, but it also takes place in other levels of your multidimensional bodies. Therefore, be conscious that what you do day by day is in accord with the experiences of your other multidimensional beings, as well as the healing and evolution, and, ultimately, the unification of All there Is.

What is the purpose of your being here and now? It’s the unification at a higher level, at a level where all the experiences of all those bodies, all those minds, and all those spirits —present in different places— integrate, reunite and become one, in an omnipresent way.

YOU ARE KRYON

Do not forget that you are spiritual or angelical creatures dressed in human’s clothing.

As our spokesman said before, be conscious that you are something beyond the mere appearances. You are unique! The angel inhabiting within looks like you, it’s true, but he is wonderful, luminous and full of love, a love that you cannot, as humans, perceive in its totality.

Close your eyes and concentrate on your heart, you can feel the love coming from the higher realms of your Being. Take note: we said "higher realms of your Being." In fact, we are not speaking of "higher realms of beings superior to you." There is nobody superior to no one. Your present being simultaneously coexists in those higher realms. Therefore, you are part of that Being, as much as we are part of Him.

Dear ones, our experience is similar to yours. We – who now call ourselves Kryon – also have a spiritual experience, we assume an identity and together with you, we play the same game of Life, taking on our role and assuming our rightful place at this time. Our role is to give you encouragement, support, and to make you see that mastery is not outsider of yourself, but within. We only wish to comfort you and give you unconditional support. We only want to give, asking only in return that you allow us to be here, now, with you.

Do you know why we are here? Because your heart screamed for it! Oh, if only you knew how many entities are here at this moment. If only you knew how they caress you, how they shower you with their tears of happiness and longing, how they hold you in their arms, how they softly rock you, playfully messing up your hair... If only you knew how many children are here now... They are who you were once, what you are and what you will become!

We are all here now – we, together with you and all of your aspects – simply because today we wish to caress your soul; we want to give you the solace of knowing that you are never alone. Never! And whenever you feel sad or lonely because you are not understood by the people around you – or perhaps because things didn't turn out the way you expected – just remember what we have told you: you are not alone and you can talk to us, we are always listening.

My dear ones, what the spokesman said it's true: You are Kryon. Kryon lives inside of you, but not as an isolated entity. Kryon is a concept related to a "soul concert." Spirit "is" a soul concert and the music playing at this concert is the music of the spheres, composed and executed especially for you.

Open up your heart and through it perceive this great concert! Your heart will be able to discern that which is true or not, that which is right for you or what you should reject. Your heart – which knows everything – can validate this and other experiences.

THE FIRST OF MANY STEPS IS A LEAP INTO THE VOID

Do you know something? We feel very joyful because what is happening today is the first of many steps. We needed for our spokesman to take this first step. It was not delayed. It was right on time. Now is the moment.

Nothing is ever out of place in life. Nothing is ever out sync with the planning. All of this was previously planned. It was planned by the entity at a higher level, but what you perceive is only what your duality allows you to see. He was worried and afraid about the idea of channeling before an audience since –as he said it himself – he felt like he was going to take a real "leap into the void."

Do you know something? This is one of today's lessons. There is no such a thing as a void; the solutions appear as you move forward. In the end, he understood that he had to take the leap without knowing whether or not there would be a safety net. Furthermore, he "had to believe" that the net was there... In fact, he placed the net there himself with his intention! When he walked towards the cliff, he did it with the firm conviction that the net was there to make his flight safe.

Why do we say this to you? Because this is not only about our spokesman; it is also about you, humans.

Go and co-create the net you need to leap into the void. Firmly believe that you can really build the necessary bridge to cross the void. Believe in it: it's all in your power and your intention.

Whenever you align your intention, we co-create together with you. That is the co-creation we have spoken of so much: it is simply the tuning of your wishes with our manipulations. In order for this to happen, there needs to be a wish or an intention, you decide what that will be. We cannot interfere or help if you do not plan or wish for something. Your desire is an order to Spirit, but you must dream it, you must imagine it, you must long for it...

Walk confidently towards the cliff because there will be a bridge or a safety net. Believe in this lesson, take it as a piece of advice that we have given you before and that we wish to repeat again today, because we know that there are people here who are afraid. Fear is human, dears, it is inherent to your nature. Without fear you would not be humans and you would not have to go through all the tests you face daily.

THE FEAR OF OPENING DOORS

Fear is the main ingredient of spiritual growth and your evolutionary process. You grow by learning to face your fear. Therefore, we advice that you to use your fear, face it, talk to it and negotiate with it... if you believe you cannot do anything, act: oppose that fear and beat it in its own territory!

There is a saying: "pave your way." If you don't take the first step, nothing will happen. Don't wait for things to arrive by themselves. Nothing will ever get to you if you don't take the first step. Do you know what that first step is all about? It is about placing a key in one of the many doors around you. You have no idea how many doors are waiting to be opened! Your life's development is about opening doors: your experience will be in accord with the door you open.

But what you cannot do is to stop in the middle of the hallway, looking at the Doors without making the decision to open one. "Kryon, I'm scared of making decisions. Which door shall I open? What if I open the wrong one?" There is not such thing as the wrong door, beloved. All the doors have your name on them. Do you know what else? When you open a door, as you turn the knob on that door, it will cause all the other doors to open, the doors of other beings that, like you, are just waiting to hear the sound of the creaking door to go in.

When your hinges squeak, others will automatically feel encouraged to open their doors. Therefore, grasp the knob firmly and cross the threshold. Do not be afraid! What could happen? Nothing different from what has already happened! Aren't you happy with the one you opened? Close it and open another one! How many doors are there? As many as you want to open! Each one of those doors will lead you to the experience you need to have in that moment of your lives. Don't be afraid!

We want to let you know that the co-creation agenda is based upon those simple steps: make a decision, set it into motion and do what has to be done. The rest will start to manifest through what you do and with the help of our little adjustments. Ah, did you think that we did not make any adjustments? Of course we always adjust your creations! Observe what we said: "adjustment," but we do not interfere. We perform little adjustments so that the synchronicities of the events unfold relatively smoothly, without blockages. The other thing we wish to underline is that – whenever you open a door – you should not despair if you don't get immediate results. Opening a door does not imply having it all at the foot of the door. Opening a door means taking the first step and moving forward.

Whatever you wish for it to happen, the events you are setting off... will happen in due time. Be patient, because the necessary adjustments depend on a certain number of synchronicities that not only involve you but also other people that have opened doors connected to yours. What a muddle of doors, isn't it? What a labyrinth! But this is a perfectly organised labyrinth even though you cannot perceive it simply because you still do not have the complete view that we have.

THE LABYRINTH OF SYNCHRONICITY

Everything is connected! You are here now because everything is connected. You had to be here! What happens with the person next to you, the one to your right or the one to your left? Have you asked them why they are here? Have you asked their name? Have you introduced yourselves? Have you discovered some kind of synchronicity? Why don't you do it before you leave this room? Maybe you are meeting again with someone very dear to you and you don't know it yet... a loved one in this life? Probably not, but surely in another expression, another moment, some other instant... Look in the eyes of that person beside you. Look at her or him and see if your heart says anything... Is there something? Feel it. Do you actually believe that the only purpose of your being here is to listen to Kryon? No! There are many things that will unfold from now on. Maybe it will have to do with the person sitting next to you. Maybe it will have to do with what happens when you leave this place. Maybe it will have to do with your attitude when you get home tonight. Maybe it will have to do with that conversation you are waiting to have with that someone... and all this process taking place now will make you evaluate your position and make you feel that something is changing in your Now. Don't be afraid to show it, to express it, to postpone it or to just do it. Follow your intention; follow your heart, because, in the end, everything is based upon what your heart feels.

We feel the joy, not only coming from you, but also coming from our entities who are celebrating, because the major step our spokesman took today is just one of the many steps... Remember – as you would say – "Rome was not built in one day." Although today's energy is such, which is, by the way, unique because it belongs to this now, other moments will come; other family meetings with other messages, other experiences and all will be channeled to bring you consolation, joy, peace and love.

I can feel the joy in your heart! You came here with high expectations: you wanted to feel, perceive, to meet us... Here we are! Feel us, beyond the voice, beyond the person channelling our message... Beyond all of that there is an energy you cannot see. Feel it, enjoy it, treasure it, and take it home. What would you wish for yourselves? Healing? A resolution to a conflict? A new job? Is there a new project you cannot get started? Is your loved one leaving you? Do you want a new love? Were there losses in your lives?

Think about all that. Think that you want to be healed. Think that you want to be happy. Think that this marvellous energy the Spirit brought to you today will put your heart at ease, will shower you with love, will make you feel that none of the things I just mentioned are more important than the consolation of being home with the ones you love... we are a family! When you open your human eyes, maybe you don't recognize the Family... but you do not need to recognize it with your human eyes. Feel it with your heart and know that here and now there is a Family meeting taking place, and our wish is that we all recognize each other and have a wonderful time.

Oh, Yes! There is much joy and happiness for this is our first public message through our spokesman. Have you noticed where this message is taking place? It's taking place here in your country (Argentina), in your capital city (Buenos Aires). Please notice the fact that our spokesman lives in another country (Venezuela). His home, his roots, his main occupation is in another place. And you have seen it... He leaped into the void, here in your city, only before you, in front of those who had to be here. Is this important? Think, what does this mean to you? We do not want to qualify it because we know you will have a lot to process after you leave this room tonight.

Tonight, you have seen, you have felt, we have given you messages coming from the Other Side of the Veil... but as we said at the beginning, which is the Other Side of the Veil? Is it this or that one? Is there some side of the Veil somewhere? Is there a veil? Maybe there is not such thing as a veil...

Dears, try to understand that in order to be able to express ourselves, we do it with metaphors. Metaphors are a "gentle" way of telling you something in a way you can understand. Is there a veil or there isn't? You there and we here? Or you here and we there? No! All here and all there! We are all in the same place: your physical essences are Here and your spiritual essences are There, the Here and Now are fused into one.

We are Here all together and we are also There all together. Do you know why we are There? Because at this moment, your spiritual essences are also having a Family meeting. What we are doing here and now with the Kryon Group we are also doing it at other levels, where your essences are processing these emotions that are part words, part energy and part feelings.

Allow yourselves to get carried away by these ideas, these Concepts. Remember everything, absolutely everything we have conveyed today... but do not process it with your mind. Remember it at a cellular level and at an emotional level. Do process the feeling of now, of having been here, of having felt and received. With that memory, go back to your homes and work places with the reassurance that we will never give you up.

We are Kryon. We are a large Group of entities. You and we are the entities that shape the Kryon Group. You are Kryon! We simply provide a voice for your spiritual yearnings.

We lovingly bless you but we do not say goodbye because we remain here, in the interdimensionality.

My beloved, go in peace.
